Your Hon. Nov. 20
1843

My dear Sir Nicholas,

Again I have to thank you for your kind notice of the Rapoza and Book of Heath - I am truly sensible of your friend's attentions to my interests, and deeply grateful for it. Mr. Beraea dined with one on Monday and spoke in the most exalted terms of the Murray Post towards the Due de Bourbon, to Beraea wished to

Call on you before he left

Yan but had too much business that he could not find time - He told us on his return -

This day had a long talk from the same Viscount at Paris, who treats his imprisonment like a philosopher and trusts to good account by diligently applying himself to study - He begged me to remember him to you -

Believe me Sir yours oblige and sincerely
