Andover, Oct. 30th 1848.

Dear Sir,

The enclosed is, to the best of my knowledge, a manuscript of Rev. Edwards, in his own handwriting. I take it from a collection of his papers, all of which are not yet published. I am sorry that I cannot find none with his name attached.

In return for this autograph, will you have the goodness to send me one from some distinguished Russian, from some celebrated bishop, or diplomatist. Would it be possible to procure an autograph of the Emperor of Russia? I or one of Alexander or any of the Imperial family?

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
Edwards A. Park.

P.S. My address is,
Rev. Edwards A. Park,
Professor of Christian Theology,
in the Theological Seminary,
Andover, Massachusetts,
United States of America.

Prof. A. Park's Wife, is great granddaughter of Horatio Edwards, and daughter of Col. William Edwards,
of Brooklyn, N. Y.
