Ship-worms of Calcutta, taken from the bottom of the Hiff Firth of Fennork, in 1819; considered as very destructive to timber. Collected by Captain Isaac, and presented to me by Mr. Agman. July 14, 1821.
Autograph Dr. Samuel Mitchell
Narrowsburg, N.Y.

Mr. Angier Britton

Phlegm possibly bilious

Murrindoo Netherca of Calcutta, laden from the bottom of the ship trip to 1821

SIGNED

Samuel 1821