

2/18/51.

1

Robt Bank:
Boston, April 19, 1851.

J. J. Towner, Esq.

Cashier:

Dear Sir,

One of the daughters of our President, Ignatius Sargent, Esq. is about to become a resident in your goodly city. I shall draw a cheque on you in her favour for $400, which you will do me the kindness to honour.

Very respectfully,

Your obed<sup>t</sup> servant,

Chas Sprague,

Cash.

Charles Sprague the poet, and Cashier of a Bank.