

Timeline Picture Created Using Microsoft Word

Normal first pregnancy of previously healthy women

Male, 30 weeks of gestation, birth weight 660g

Respiratory failure, congenital sepsis

Bronchopulmonary dysplasia, feeding disorders

Discharged home, body weight 2,560g

Birth of child B

Emergency caesarean section, intubated shortly after birth

First months of life

Age of 2.5 month

Age of 4 years

Follow up - non-allergic asthma, behavioral problems

Female, 27 weeks and 4 days of gestation, birth weight 470 g

Respiratory failure

Birth of child A

Emergency caesarean section, intubated immediately after birth

Liver failure, hepatosplenomegaly, coagulopathy.
Peculiar phenotype, suspicion of metabolic or chromosomal diseases.

Age of 1 month and 16 days

Medical genetic testing were found to be normal.

Age of 7 months and 7days

Collection of blood samples:
Child-A – post mortem.
Child B – 4 years old

Death of child A due to pulmocardial insufficiency