Sir

Owing to my having been extremely occupied of late, both by public & private business, I could not till now, inform you that you are at liberty to put down the names of Lord Seignemore, The Rt Hon J. C. Villiers, Mr John Warburton Esq of Maise Castle near Bristol, and myself, as Trustees; & also Mess^{rs}

 Drummond's in addition to Mess^{rs}
 Cutts, as Receivers of Benefactions.

No time should be lost, where (though
 I hope from unavoidable circumstances)
 too much has been lost already.

I am

Sir

Your faithful Servant
 W. Wilberforce

To Mr Booth.
