Mr Malthus, fearing that he may not have many future opportunities of making new communications to the Imperial Academy of Sciences at St. Petersburg, of which he has been elected an Honorary Member, takes the liberty of requesting M. Fuchs to present to the Academy with his respectful homage, the last Edition of his Work on Population, together with a small work which he has lately published on the Definitions in Political Economy.

Mr Malthus will have the honour of presenting his larger work on Political Economy when the next Edition comes out, which he trusts will not be long delayed.

Mr Malthus requests M. Fuchs to accept the assurance of his high respect and esteem.
